

B:C:Clettes

The B:C:Clettes perform at conferences, events, festivals, and cycling celebrations.

Professional performance by a do-it-yourself group.

From Victoria to Los Angeles, the B:C:Clettes have inspired audiences of all ages!

They facilitate workshops and participatory dance experiences.

The B:C:Clettes are a bicycle-inspired performance collective based in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

They DANCE, RIDE, SHIMMY and SHOUT to celebrate cycling and advocate for a pedal-powered world.

A spectacle of bikes, bike parts, movement, music, spoken word and synchronicity to entertain and engage audiences.

The message:

Biking is SMART, FUN and FASHIONABLE!

Momentum Magazine feature story on the B:C:Clettes. Dec 2006.

The B:C:Clettes have performed to rave reviews at the University of British Columbia, Farmer's Markets in Kitsilano, East Vancouver, Eugene OR & Davis CA, Vancouver's Bike to Work Week celebrations and Car-Free Days, The Multnomah County Bike Fair in Portland OR, The Bike Rider's Ball in Victoria, and at many more events...

See the B:C:Clettes recently released music video / PSA promoting helmets at bcclettes.ca. Featured at Vancouver's Bike Shorts 2008, the VACC's screening of the Long Road North, and online at streetfilms.org.

For booking inquiries, show listings, song credits and more info:

bcclettes.ca
bcclettes@gmail.com

B:C:Clettes perform 'Love Story' in San Luis Obispo, CA. August 2007

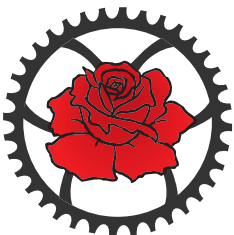

B:C:Clettes bring 'Sexy Back' at Rouge et Noir: A Bicycle Cabaret. Vancouver, BC. July 2007.

B:C:Clettes dance 'La Bicicletta' in San Luis Obispo, CA. August 2007

Performance of The Clette-a-festo at the Multnomah County Bike Fair. Portland, OR. July 2008.

For booking inquiries, show listings,
song credits and more info:

bcclettes.ca
bcclettes@gmail.com